SUMMARY

Results-driven Full-Stack Software Engineer with 3+ years delivering production-grade web applications in Next.js, React, TypeScript, Node.js, Tailwind CSS, and MongoDB. Skilled in RESTful API development, Google Maps API integration, responsive UI engineering, and custom WordPress and Elementor plugin development. An early adopter of AI-assisted development with Claude Code, Anthropic Claude, Google Gemini, and Cursor AI to speed up coding, debugging, and CI/CD delivery. Experienced in Docker containerization and self-hosted deployment with Coolify, grounded in clean architecture, scalability, SEO, and agile collaboration.

EXPERIENCE

Freelance Software Engineer & Technical Blogger

Independent / Pulse 24 Digital Agency

Apr 2026 – Present • Remote, Sri Lanka

- Architected 8+ multi-brand Next.js platforms and custom e-commerce checkout funnels spanning travel, fashion, and engineering clients.
- Integrated Claude Code, Gemini, and Cursor AI into AI CLI workflows, cutting prototype-to-production time by roughly 50% and automating test coverage.
- Operated self-hosted deployment pipelines on Docker and Coolify, sustaining 5 concurrent production environments at 99% uptime.

Software Engineer

Scripterlab

Feb 2024 – Present • Full-time · Colombo, Sri Lanka

- Shipped features end-to-end across data modeling, REST API development, and responsive React interfaces built with Tailwind CSS.
- Integrated Google Maps API into Next.js applications for location search, geocoding, and interactive map experiences.
- Resolved complex system-design challenges in an agile team, tuning render and query performance to reduce page-load times by about 30%.

Software Engineer

Techneapp

Feb 2024 – Present • Remote · Sri Lanka

- Engineered reusable React and Next.js components while managing state synchronization across distributed services.
- Built custom WordPress and Elementor plugins to extend client sites with dynamic, API-driven content and widgets.
- Maintained 6+ third-party API integrations for travel-booking products with consistently high reliability.

Associate Software Engineer

Techneapp
